

To Draw a Rectangle Using a Corner as the Starting Point

1. Click Home tab Draw panel Rectangle drop-down Corner. Find
2. Click in the drawing area to specify the first corner of the rectangle (1 in the illustration).
3. Specify the opposite corner.

To specify the corner by selecting a point:

In the drawing area, click the point to use as the opposite corner (2 in the illustration).

To specify the corner by entering the distance to the point:

1. If you are unable to see dimensions in tooltips as shown in the illustration above, press F12.
2. In the tooltip along the base (3 in the illustration), enter the base length and press TAB.
3. Enter the value for the height and press ENTER.

Cursor	Meaning
	Creates a rectangle using a corner as the starting point.
	Creates a rectangle using the midpoint of the base as the starting point
	Creates a rectangle using the midpoint of the height as the starting point.
	Creates a rectangle using the center of the rectangle as the starting point.

