CHAPTER II TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF CIVIL SERVANTS

- 3. Terms and conditions.— The terms and conditions of service of a civil servant shall be as follows:—

4. Appointments.— Appointment to a civil service of the province or to a civil post in affairs of the province, shall be made in the prescribed manner by the Governor or by a person in that behalf.

5. Probation.— (1) An initial appointment to a service or post referred to in section 4, shall be on such probation and for such period of probation as may be prescribed.

(2) Any appointment of a civil servant by promotion or transfer to a service or post shall be on such probation and for such period of probation as may be prescribed.

(3) Where, in respect of any service or post, the satisfactory completion of probation includes a prescribed examination, test or course or successful completion of any training, a person appointed to such service or post who, before the expiry of the original or extended period of probation, failed to pass such examination or test or to successfully complete the course or the training as may be prescribed otherwise,—

(a) if he was appointed to such service or post by initial recruitment, be discharged; and

(b) if he was appointed to such service or post by promotion or transfer, be reverted to the service or post from which he was promoted or transferred and against which he holds a lien or, if there is no such service or post, be discharged.

6. Confirmation.— (1) A person appointed on probation shall, on satisfactory completion of probation, be eligible for confirmation in a service or a post as may be prescribed.

(2) A civil servant promoted to a post [3] [* * ] on probation shall, on satisfactory completion of probation, be confirmed in such post [4] [ * *] as may be prescribed.

(3) A civil servant promoted to a post [5] [* * *] on regular basis shall be confirmed in such service or post as may be prescribed.

(4) There shall be no confirmation against any temporary post.

(5) A civil servant who, during the period of his service, was eligible for confirmation against any post, retires from service before confirmation shall not, merely by reason of his retirement, be entitled to any benefits accruing therefrom.

(6) Confirmation of a civil servant in a service or against a post shall take effect from the date of occurrence of a permanent vacancy in such service or against such post or from the date of his officiation, in such service or against such post, whichever is later.

7. Seniority.— (1) Seniority on initial appointment to a service, cadre, [6] [* * *] or post shall be determined in the prescribed manner.

[7] (2) Seniority in a post, service, or cadre to which a civil servant is promoted shall take effect from the date of regular appointment to that post:

Provided that civil servants who are selected for promotion to a higher post in one promotion to the higher post retain their inter se seniority in the lower post.]

(3) For proper administration of a [8] [service or cadre] the appointing authority shall from time to time cause a seniority list of the members of such [9] [service or cadre] to be prepared.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), the seniority of a civil servant in relation to other civil servants belonging to the same [10] [service or cadre], whether serving in the same department or otherwise, shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed.

[11] 8. Promotion.— (1) A civil servant shall be eligible to be considered for appointment by promotion to a higher post reserved for promotion in the service or cadre to which he belongs in a manner as may be prescribed if he possesses the prescribed qualifications.

(2) Promotion including proforma promotion shall not be claimed by any civil servant as of right.

(3) Promotion shall be granted with immediate effect and be actualized from the date of its grant.

(4) A civil servant shall not be entitled to promotion from an earlier date except in the promotion.

(5) A retired civil servant shall not be eligible for grant of promotion; provided that he is eligible for grant of proforma promotion as may be prescribed.

(6) A post referred to in sub-section (1) may either be a selection post or a non-selection post. Promotion shall be made as follows:-

(a) in the case of a selection post, on the basis of selection on merit; and

(b) in the case of non-selection post, on the basis of seniority-cum-fitness.]

[12] [(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, if a civil servant dies or superannuates and the authority recommends his promotion to a higher post and before he assumes the charge of the post, the competent authority may approve promotion of such a civil servant with effect from the day immediate to his death or superannuation.]

[13] [* * * * *]

9. Postings and transfers.— Every civil servant shall be liable to serve anywhere within or outside the Punjab or the Federal Government or any Provincial Government or any local authority or a corporation or a body set up or established by any such Government:

Provided that, where a civil servant is required to serve in a post outside his service or conditions of service as to his pay shall not be less favourable than those to which he would have been so required to serve.

10. Termination of service.— (1) The service of a civil servant may be terminated without notice:

(i) during the initial or extended period of his probation:

Provided that, where such civil servant is appointed by promotion on probation and is transferred and promoted on probation from one [14] [service], cadre, or post to another [16] [service] or cadre, or post his service shall not be terminated so long as he holds a post, [16] [service] or cadre, and he shall be reverted to his former [17] [service], or cadre or post;

(ii) if the appointment is made on ad hoc basis liable to termination on the appointment of such person.

(2) In the event of a post being abolished or number of posts in a cadre or [18] [service] being reduced, the services of the most junior person in such cadre or [19] [service] shall be terminated.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (1) but subject to the provisions of section 10, the service of a civil servant in temporary employment or appointed on ad hoc basis shall be liable to termination on thirty days notice or pay in lieu thereof.

11. Reversion to a lower [20] [post].— A civil servant appointed to a higher post after the commencement of the Punjab Civil Servants (Amendment) Ordinance, 1984, to a higher [21] [post] on an officiating basis, shall be liable to reversion to his lower post [22] [* * *] without notice.

[23] 11-A. Certain persons to be liable to removal or reversion.— Notwithstanding anything in the terms and conditions of service, a civil servant appointed or promoted during the period from the first day of January, 1972 to the fifth day of July, 1977, may be removed from service or reverted to his [24] [post] without notice, by the Governor of the Punjab or a person authorised by him in this behalf or by the Governor of the Punjab or, as the case may be, the person so authorised may, in the public interest
