63. Confirmation and duration of assessment.— (1) An assessment, the undertaking of which has been sanctioned under the provisions of section 59, shall not be considered final until it has been confirmed by the Board of Revenue.

(2) At any time before an assessment is so confirmed, the <sup>169</sup>[Commissioner] or Board of Revenue may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), modify the assessment of any estate.

(3) Before an enhancement is ordered under the provisions of sub-section (2), the <sup>170</sup>[Commissioner] or the Board of Revenue, as the case may be, shall cause reasonable notice to be given to the land-owners by proclamation published in the manner described in section 26, to show cause in a petition addressed to the Revenue Officer why the proposed enhancement should not be ordered, and the Revenue Officer shall enquire into any objections raised by any land-owner and submit such petition received by him with his report thereon to the <sup>[71]</sup>[Commissioner] or the Board of Revenue, who shall consider the petition and the report and shall also hear the petitioner if the petitioner so desires.

64. Duration of assessment.—(1) The Board of Revenue shall, when confirming an assessment under sub-section (1) of section 63, fix a period of time for which the assessment shall remain in force.

(2) The period fixed under sub-section (1) shall be twenty-five years:

Provided that a period not exceeding twenty-five years and not shorter than ten years may be fixed for any area, specified by the Board of Revenue, in which canal irrigation has been introduced after the date of the orders passed under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 61 at the last previous assessment or in which it has been proposed to introduce such irrigation during the period fixed.

65. Assessment to remain in force till new assessment takes effect.—Notwithstanding the expiration of the period fixed for the continuance of an assessment under the last foregoing section, the assessment shall remain in force till a new assessment takes effect.

66. Refusal to be liable for assessment and consequences thereof.—(1) At any time within ninety days from the date of the announcement of an assessment, the land-owner or, where there are more land-owners than one, any of them who would be individually or collectively liable for more than half the sum assessed, may give notice to the Revenue Officer of refusal to be liable for the assessment.

(2) When the Revenue Officer receives a notice under sub-section (1), the Collector may take possession of the estate and deal with it, as nearly as may be, as if the annulment of the assessment thereof had been ordered as a process for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue due thereon.

(3) While the estate is in the possession of the Collector, the land-owner or land-owners shall be entitled to receive from Government an allowance, to be fixed by the Board of Revenue, which shall not be less than fifty or more than seventy-five per cent of the net income realised by Government from the estate.

67. Distribution of the assessment of an estate over the holdings comprised therein.— (1) If the assessment announced under section 61 is in whole or in part a fixed assessment of an estate for a term of years, the Revenue Officer shall, before the date on which the first instalment thereof becomes payable, make an order distributing it over the several holdings comprised the estate and make and publish a record of the distribution.

(2) The Collector may for sufficient reasons make an order revising that record at any time while the assessment continues to be in force, and publish the record so revised.

(3) If the assessment announced under section 61 is in the form of rates chargeable according to the results of each year or harvest, a Revenue Officer shall from year to year or from harvest to harvest, as the conditions of the assessment may require, make and publish, not later than one month before the first instalment of the land-revenue falls due, a record of the amount payable in respect of each holding.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, arid land (whether cultivated or not) in which well or tube-well irrigation facilities are provided by or on behalf of the land-owner or the tenant shall, for a period not less than four years from the date such irrigation facilities are first provided in such land, not be liable to pay land-revenue at a higher rate than was payable thereon before such irrigation facilities were provided.

Explanation— For the purposes of this sub-section only such land shall be deemed to be arid land in which canal irrigation has not been introduced.

68. Application for amendment of the distribution of an assessment.— (1) Any person affected by a record under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of the last foregoing section or by the revision of a record under sub-section (2) of that section, may, within thirty days from the date of the publication of the record, present a petition to the Revenue Officer for a re-consideration of the record so far as it affects him.

(2) The order passed by the Revenue Officer on the petition shall set forth his reasons for granting or refusing it.

69. Appeals from orders under sections 62 and 68.— An appeal from an order under the last foregoing section or section 62 shall lie to the <sup>[72]</sup>[Commissioner] and from the appellate order of the <sup>[73]</sup>[Commissioner], to the Board of Revenue.

Special Assessment

(a) when it is proposed to change the form of assessment;

(b) when lands are sold, leased or granted by Government;

(c) when the assessment of any land has been annulled or the land-owner has refused to be liable therefor, and the term for which the land was to be managed by the Collector or his agent or let in farm has expired;

(d) when assessments of land-revenue require revision in consequence of the action of water or sand or of calamity of season or from any other cause;

(e) when revenue due to the Government on account of pasture or other natural products of land, or on account of mills, fisheries or natural products of water, or on account of other rights described in section 49 or section 50, has not been included in an assessment made under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter;

(f) when waste and barren land becomes liable to the payment of land-revenue.

(2) The Board of Revenue may confirm any assessment made under this section.

(3) The foregoing provisions of this Chapter with respect to general assessment shall, subject to such modifications thereof as the Board of Revenue may prescribe by executive instructions issued under the provisions of section 73, regulate the procedure of Revenue Officers making special assessments.

CHAPTER VIII

COLLECTION OF LAND REVENUE

74. Liability for payment of land-revenue.— In the case of any holding, the holding and its land-owner shall be liable for the payment of land-revenue thereon, and if there be joint land-owners of a holding, the holding and all the land-owners jointly and severally shall be liable for the payment of the land-revenue.

75. Security for payment of land-revenue.— (1) The land-revenue for the time being assessed and payable in respect of a holding shall be the first charge upon the rents, profits and produce thereof.

(2) Save with the previous consent of the Collector, the rents, profits and produce of a holding shall not be liable to be taken in execution of a decree or order of any Court until the land-revenue chargeable against the rents, profits or produce or any arrear of land-revenue due in respect of the holding, have been paid.

76. Orders to regulate payment of land-revenue.— (1) Notwithstanding anything in any record-of-rights, the Board of Revenue may fix the number and amount of the installments, and the times, places and manner, by, at and in which the land-revenue is to be paid.

(2) Until the Board of Revenue otherwise directs, land-revenue shall be payable by the installments at the times and places and in the manner, by, at and in which it is payable immediately before the commencement of this Act.

77. Rules to regulate collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue.— The Board of Revenue may, with the previous approval of Government, make rules not inconsistent with this Act to regulate the collection, remission and suspension of land-revenue.

78. Costs recoverable as part of arrear.— The costs of any process issued under this Chapter shall be recoverable as part of the arrear of land-revenue in respect of which the process was issued.

79. Certified account to be evidence as to arrear.— A statement of account certified by a Revenue Officer shall be conclusive proof of the existence of an arrear of land-revenue, of its amount and of the person who is the defaulter.

80. Processes for recovery of arrears.— Subject to the other provisions of this Act, an arrear of land-revenue may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes, namely:-

(a) by service of a notice of demand on the defaulter under section 81;

(b) by arrest and detention of his person under section 82;

(c) by distress and sale of his movable property and uncut or ungathered crops under section 83;

(d) by transfer, under section 84, of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due;

(e) by attachment, under section 85, of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due;

(f) by annulment, under section 86, of the assessment of that holding;

(g) by sale of that holding under section 88;

(h) by proceedings against other immovable property of the defaulter under section 90.

81. Notice of demand.— A notice of demand may be issued by Revenue Officer on or after the day following that on which an arrear of land-revenue accrues.

82. Arrest and detention of defaulter.—<sup>180</sup>[(1) If after lapse of twenty days of the service of the notice of demand under section 81 on a defaulter, arrears of land-revenue due from him or any part thereof, remain unpaid, a Revenue Officer may issue a warrant directing an officer named therein to arrest the defaulter or the person who furnishes security under clause (b) of sub-section (8) and bring him before the Revenue Officer.]

(2) <sup>181</sup>[* * * * *]

(3) When the defaulter is brought before the Revenue Officer, the Revenue Officer may cause him to be taken before the Collector, or may keep him under personal restraint for a period not exceeding ten days and then, if the arrear is still unpaid, cause him to be taken before the Collector.

(4) Where the Revenue Officer keeping a defaulter under personal restraint is an Assistant Collector of the second grade, he shall without delay report his action to the Collector, if the period of such restraint exceeds twenty-four hours.

(5) When the defaulter is brought before the Collector, the Collector may issue an order to the officer-in-charge of the civil jail of the District, directing him to confine the defaulter in jail for such period not exceeding the month from the date of the order, as the Collector thinks fit.

(6) The process of arrest and detention shall not be executed against a defaulter who is a female, a minor, a lunatic or an idiot.

(7) A warrant of arrest issued against a defaulter under sub-section (1) shall not be executed, if the arrears due from him are paid or the defaulter furnishes security in the manner provided in clause (b) of sub-section (8).

(8) Any defaulter, who, under sub-section (3) is being kept under personal restraint, or under sub-section (5) is being confined in the civil jail, shall forthwith be set at liberty—

(a) on the arrears due from such defaulter being paid; or

(b) on the defaulter furnishing to the Revenue Officer ordering his arrest, or the Collector, security to the satisfaction of the Revenue Officer or the Collector, as the case may be, for the payment of the arrears due from him.

83. Distress and sale of movable property and crops.— (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, the immovable property and uncut or ungathered crops of the defaulter, may be distrained and sold by order of a Revenue Officer.

(2) The distress and sale shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the law for the time being in force for the attachment and sale of movable property under the decree of a Revenue Court:

Provided that, in addition to the particulars exempted by any law for the time being in force from liability to sale, so much of the produce of the land of the defaulter as the Collector thinks necessary for seed grain and for the subsistence, until the harvest next following of the defaulter and his family, and of any cattle exempted by that law shall be exempted from sale under this section.

84. Transfer of holding.— (1) At any time after an arrear of land-revenue has accrued on a holding, the Collector may transfer the holding to any person being a land-owner of the estate in which such holding is situated and not being a defaulter in respect of his own holding on condition of his paying the arrear being put in possession of the holding and on such further conditions as the Collector may deem fit to impose:

Provided that no order shall be passed under this sub-section for the transfer of a holding unless the processes specified in clauses (b) and (c) of section 80 have first been taken against the land-owner.

(2) The transfer may, as the Collector thinks fit be either till the end of the agricultural year in which the defaulter pays to the transferee the amount of the arrear which the transferee paid before being put in possession of the holding, or for a term not exceeding fifteen years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the transfer.

(3) The Collector shall report to the <sup>[82]</sup>[Commissioner] any transfer made by him under this section, and the <sup>[83]</sup>[Commissioner] may set aside the transfer or alter the conditions thereof or pass such other order as he thinks fit.

(4) In respect of all rights and liabilities arising under this Act, the person to whom the holding is transferred shall, subject to the conditions of the transfer, stand in the same position as that in which the defaulter would have stood if the holding had not been transferred.

(5) When the transfer is for a term, the holding shall, on the expiration of the term, be restored by the Collector to the defaulter free of any claim on the part of Government or the transferee for any arrear of land-revenue or rates and cess due in respect thereof.

85. Attachment of holding.— (1) The Collector may instead of transferring under section 84 a holding in respect of which an arrear of land-revenue has accrued, cause such holding to be attached and taken under his own management or that of an agent appointed by him for that purpose.

(2) The Collector or the agent shall be bound by all the engagements which existed between the defaulter and his tenants, if any, and shall be entitled to manage the land and to receive all rents and profits accruing therefrom to the exclusion of the defaulter until the arrear has been satisfied, or until the Collector restores the land to the defaulter.

(3) All surplus profits of the land attached beyond the cost of attachment and management and the amount necessary to meet the current demand for land-revenue and rates and cesses shall be applied in discharge of the arrear.

(4) Land shall not be attached for the same arrear for a longer term than five years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the attachment, but if the arrear is sooner discharged, the land shall be released and the surplus receipts, if any, made over to the land-owner.

86. Annulment of assessment of holding.— (1) When an arrear of land-revenue has been due for a longer period than one year, and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Board of Revenue may, in addition to or instead of all or any of these processes, order the existing assessment of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due to be annulled.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not be put in force for the recovery of an arrear of land-revenue which has accrued on land—

(a) while under attachment under section 85, or

(b) while under the charge of the Court of Wards.

(3) When the assessment of any land has been annulled under sub-section (1), the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue, manage the land either himself or through an agent, or let it in farm to any person willing to accept the farm for such term and on such conditions as may be sanctioned by the Board of Revenue:

Provided that the term for which land may be so managed or farmed shall not be longer than ten years from the commencement of the agricultural year next following the date of the annulment.

(4) Sometime before the expiration of the aforesaid term, the Collector shall determine the assessment in respect of the holding for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the District or Tahsil, and, when that assessment has been sanctioned by the Board of Revenue, shall announce it to the land-owner.

(5) The land-owner may give notice to the Collector of refusal to be liable for the assessment within thirty days from the date on which the assessment was announced to him.

(6) If notice is so given, the Collector may, with the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue, take the holding under direct management or farm it for the remainder of the term of the current assessment of the District or Tahsil, or for any period within that term which the Board of Revenue may fix.

(7) The Board of Revenue may direct that any contract made by the defaulter, or by any person through whom the defaulter claims with respect to any land comprised in a holding of which the assessment has been annulled, shall not be binding on the Collector or his agent or farmer during the period the holding remains under the management of the Collector or his agent or is let-in-farm.

87. Proclamation of attachment or annulment of assessment and consequences of proclamation.—(1) When any land is attached under section 85, or when the assessment of any land has been annulled under section 86, the Collector shall make proclamation thereof.

(2) No payment made by any person to the defaulter before the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset in anticipation of the usual time for the payment shall, without the previous sanction of the Collector, be credited to that person or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

(3) No payment made after the making of the proclamation on account of rent or any other asset of the holding to any person other than the Collector or his agent or farmer shall be credited to the person making the payment or relieve him from liability to make the payment to the Collector or his agent or farmer.

88. Sale of holding.— When an arrear of land-revenue has accrued and the foregoing processes are not deemed sufficient for the recovery thereof, the Collector, with the previous sanction of the Board of Revenue may, in addition to, or instead of, all or any of those processes, and subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, sell the holding in respect of which the arrear is due:

Provided that land shall not be sold for the recovery of—

(a) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under the charge of the Court of Wards or was so circumstanced that the Court of Wards might under the law for the time being in force, have exercised jurisdiction over it; or

(b) any arrear which has accrued while the land was under attachment under section 85; or

(c) any arrear which has accrued while the land was held under direct management by the Collector or in farm by any other person under section 86, after either an annulment of assessment or a refusal to be liable therefor.

89. Effect of sale on encumbrances.— (1) Land sold under the provisions of section 88 shall be sold free of all encumbrances; and all grants and contracts previously made by any person other than the purchaser in respect of the land shall become void as against the purchaser at the sale.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall affect—

(a) any lease at a fair rent, temporary or perpetual for the erection of a dwelling house or manual factory or for a mine, garden, tank, canal, place of worship or burial ground, so long as the land continues to be used for the purpose specified in the lease; or

(b) any encumbrance, grant or contract in respect of which the <sup>[84]</sup>[Commissioner] is satisfied was entered into in good faith, and is proclaimed as hereinafter provided.

90. Proceedings against other immovable property of defaulter.— (1) If the arrear cannot be recovered by any of the processes hereinbefore provided the Collector may, where the defaulter owns any other holding or any other immovable property, proceed under the provisions of this Act against that property as if it were the land in respect of which the arrear is due:

Provided that no interests save those of the defaulter alone shall be so proceeded against, and no encumbrances created, grants made or contracts entered into by him in good faith shall be rendered invalid by reason only of his interests being proceeded against.

(2) When the Collector decides to proceed under this section against immovable property other than the land in respect of which the arrear is due, he shall issue a proclamation prohibiting the transfer or charging of the property.

(3) The Collector may at any time, by order in writing, withdraw the proclamation, and it shall be deemed to be withdrawn when either the arrear has been paid or the interests of the defaulter in the property have been sold for the recovery of the arrear.

(4) Any private alienation of the property or of any interest of the defaulter therein, whether by sale, gift, mortgage or otherwise made after the issue of the proclamation and before the withdrawal thereof shall be void.

(5) In proceeding against property under this section, the Collector shall follow, as nearly as the nature of the property may admit, the procedure prescribed for the enforcement of process against land on which an arrear of land-revenue is due.

91. Remedies open to person denying his liability for an arrear.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in section 79, when proceedings are taken under this Act for the recovery of an arrear, the person against whom the proceedings are taken may, if he denies his liability for the arrear or any part thereof and pays the same under protest made in writing at the time of payment and signed by him or his agent, institute a suit in a Civil Court for the recovery of the amount so paid.

(2) A suit under sub-section (1) must be instituted in a Court having jurisdiction in the place where the office of the Collector of the District in which the arrear or some part thereof accrued is situate.

Procedure in sales

92. Proclamation of sale.— (1) On the receipt of the sanction of the Board of Revenue to the sale of any immovable property, the Collector shall issue a proclamation of the intended sale, specifying—

(a) the date, time and place of the sale;

(b) the property to be sold, and if it is a holding, the land-revenue assessed thereon or payable in respect thereof;

(c) if the property is to be sold for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, the encumbrances, grants and contracts, if any, served by the orders of the <sup>[85]</sup>[Commissioner] under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 89;

(d) if the property is to be sold otherwise than for the recovery of an arrear due in respect thereof, any encumbrance, grant or contract to which the property is known to be liable; and

(e) the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered.

(2) The place of sale specified under clause (a) of sub-section (1), shall be either the office of the Collector or some other place appointed by the Collector in this behalf and situate in or near the property to be sold.

93. Indemnity to Revenue Officer with respect to contents of proclamation.— A Revenue Officer shall not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in any proclamation under section 92 unless the same has been committed or made dishonestly.

94. Publication of proclamation.— (1) A copy of the proclamation shall be served on the defaulter and be affixed in a conspicuous part of the office of the Tahsildar of the Tahsil in which the property to be sold is situated and shall also be posted in the office of the Collector.

(2) The proclamation shall further be published in the manner prescribed in section 26, and in such other manner as the Collector thinks expedient.

(3) A copy of the proclamation may also be posted in the office of the <sup>[86]</sup>[Union Administration] within the area of which property to be sold is situate.

95. Time and conduct of sale.— (1) The sale shall not take place on a <sup>[87]</sup>[Friday] or other holiday, or till after the expiration of at least thirty days from the date on which the copy of the proclamation was posted in the office of the Collector.

(2) The sale shall be by publication and shall be conducted either by the Collector in person or by a Revenue Officer specially appointed by him in this behalf.

96. Power to postpone sale.— The Collector may, from time to time, postpone the sale for reasons to be recorded in writing.

97. Stay of sale.— If at any time before the bidding at an auction is completed, the defaulter or any other person having interest in the land or in immovable property pays the arrear in respect of which the property has been proclaimed for sale, together with the costs incurred for the recovery thereof, to the officer conducting the sale, or proves to the satisfaction of that officer that he has already paid the same either at the place and in the manner prescribed under section 76 or into Government treasury, the sale shall be stayed.

98. Deposit by purchaser in case of sale of immovable property.— When the highest bid at an auction has been ascertained, the person who made that bid shall, on the requisition of the officer conducting the sale, pay to that officer a deposit of twenty-five per centum on the amount of his bid and shall, on payment thereof, be declared to be the purchaser, subject to the exercise of any right of pre-emption under the law in force for the time being.

99. Consequences of failure to pay deposit.— If the person who made the highest bid fails to pay the deposit as required by section 98, the property shall forthwith be put to auction again and sold, and all expenses attending the first sale, and the deficiency of price if any, which may happen on the re-sale may be recovered from him by the Collector as if the same were an arrear of land-revenue.

100. Time for payment in full.— The full amount of the purchase money shall be paid by the purchaser before the close of the thirtieth day from that on which he was declared to be the purchaser.
